RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

Dear Sir:

In response to the Office Action dated September 24, 2002 please amend the above-identified application without prejudice as follows:

IN THE SPECIFICATION:

Please replace the fourth paragraph, beginning on line 13, on page 4 with the following:

When the invention is used on wire form products, welding, soldering or brazing are appropriate construction techniques for the device. Attachment techniques or fastener arrangements such as welding, soldering or brazing can be used to attach the wire form to the wire apparatus 1. More than one fastening arrangement can be used. FIG. 2 clearly illustrates one fastening arrangement at transverse side wire 6 and a second fastening arrangement at transverse side 8. When plastic is used, the attaching device could be integrally formed by molding. It is possible to use
